Note continued.

The Deputy Commissioner of the Mysore District was asked to furnish information on the above points. He

No. 260 Dy 9th Mar 1904. has furnished the information required, and forwarded the Amildar's report in the matter. From these and from the Ready Money Jamabandi Register, the following is gathered:—

(1) There are two Chattrams at Chamarajnagar — one a Brahmin Chattram and the other a Ganaradhane Chattram. The Brahmin Chattram has a Jasdik of Rs 897 per annum, while Rs 272-4-0 had been originally fixed as Jasdik for the Ganaradhane

No. 121-3 Dy 4th Aug 1894. Chattram. In August 1894, however, Rs. 204/- were diverted from the latter Chattram and (Flag A in linked file) fixed as additional Jasdik for the Chattram ~~recently opened~~ at Gundlepet, Rs 68 4-0 being retained for payment to a small Establishment maintained to look after the

File No. of 190 | Muzrai Secretariat.

Ganaradhane Chattram building and the trees planted in its premises.

(2) The Chamaraj nagar Brahmin Chattram is not conducted throughout the month, but is closed from 2 to 18 days in the month and amounts not exceeding Rs 10/- have been drawn and expended from the Swaikoota of the temple during the 3 years from 1900 to 1902. It may here be pointed out that ~~[illegible]~~ the servants and the Nehmindars &c are paid first, and ~~[illegible]~~ from the balance of the Jadik, left thereafter, the Chattram is conducted.

(3) The Deputy Commissioner, agreeing with the Amildar says that he is not in favor of transferring the Chattram from Chamaraj nagar to Nunnathur but that the opening of new Chattram at the latter place is very necessary

M 12. 8A]

Muzrai Secretariat. File No. of 190

(4) It is proposed that the Ummattur Chatram may be located in a stone mantap of the outer verandah of the Sri Bhujangeswaraswami temple at the place; but the building being out of repair, it may be repaired at a cost of about 1000 Rs, meeting the charge from the funds of the Sri Chamarajeswara temple; and till then the Chatram may be located temporarily in the Sri Ranganathaswami temple at the same place.

(5) The Amildar reports that an establishment as noted hereunder is necessary for the new Chatram at Ummattur.

i Parpattegar on Rs 6.

ii Cook .... on Rs 4+5 (Pachaiyar charge)

iii Paricharaik on Rs 4+5 (Do)

iv Chanquli on Rs 2+2½ (Do)

16+12½ (Do) per mensem
or Rs 342 per annum.

Add to this amount Rs 30 per mensem or provided by the Amildar Rs 360 per annum for feeding bona fide travellers and Rs 8/- for periodical repairs of the Chattram &c. The total amount required for establishing the Cha" ~~n~~ comes to Rs 710/- per annum. In this, the Deputy Commissioner concurs.

(6) It is also proposed that the Arc of the Sri Bhujangeswaraswami and the Ranganathaswami temples may also be brought on the Establishment of the Chattram, thus relieving the temple of the Sri Bhujangeswaraswami of a part of the charge, and making it available for giving increases to the temple servants and for paditara expenses in the temple, as per Statement submitted by the Amildar

(7) ~~The Village of Thanathare drawing~~
~~Head of accounts of the Sri Bhaswarajeswara~~
~~Swami temple, and for the charitable works~~
~~Yeldrai~~
~~Seven & other villages, Thanathare Revenue~~

(7) The temple of the Sri Chamaraj-eswaraswami owns several inam lands yielding an annual income of Rs 20,000f-. Deducting a sum of Rs 15,000f-od therefrom, being the expenses re required to maintain the temple, about Rs 5000f- are saved every year. The Amildar says that the village of Nunnatun being itself an inam of the same temple, the cost of opening a Chattram at the place viz Rs 710f- can well be met from the funds of the temple

And (8) In reply to a reference from Flag B this Office No. 1076, dated 17th April 1900. calling for the Deputy Commissioners opinion regarding the revision of the Establishment of the Chamarajnagar Chattram, it is now stated that the Cho Establishment of the Ganaradhane Chattram may be done away with, and the sum of Rs 68-4 saved there by may be utilised for increasing the pay of the Establishment of the Chattrams at Chamarajnagar and Bendravati from Rs 201 to 222/- and from Rs 152 4-0 to Rs 180/- respectively, and also for providing Rs 9-12-0 annually for the periodical repairs of each of the institutions. While proposing these increases, the Auditor has taken the opportunity to lessen the Paditara allowed to the said Chamarajnagar Chattram servants, and to utilise the savings thus effected for the benefit of the bona fide travellers.

The subject of the transfer of the Chamarajnagar Chattram to Ummathur had come up before the Dasara Representative Assembly of this year. But as there was at the same time another representation that the Taxdik of the Chamarajnagar Chattram was insufficient for feeding travellers throughout the month, the Secretary remarked "the Deputy Commissioner does "not recommend the transfer of the Chatram "from Chamarajnagar. to Hanumathur the "Chatram there is a necessity. I would not "recommend its transfer."

The ryots of Ummattur have memorialized His Highness the Maharaja praying for the establishment of a Chattram at the place The memorial has been transferred to this Department for disposal with the Private Secretary's Dy No 520 dy 21st August 1906

Muzrai Secretary's Remarks:-

The question of establishing a Chattram at Ummattur in the Chamarajnagar Taluk has again and again come up before the Dasara Representative Assembly, and a suggestion was made that the chattram at Chamarajnagar town might be transferred to Ummattur After making the needful enquiry the Dy. Commissioner reported that it was undesirable to transfer the feeding arrangements now existing at Chamarajnagar, but that if possible, a new chattram may be established at Ummattur. The cost of such a new chattram is estimated at over Rs. 700/- per annum and a new building has to be constructed. It was finally directed by Govt. that the transfer of the Chamarajnagar chattram to Ummattur was undesirable vide Govt Pro No. 3949-56½, dated 17th March 1906 .ip B.

As regards the establishment of a new chattra at Ummattur I beg to point out that the latter place is only 8 miles distant from Kavalandi to which place the chattram at Bendervadi was recently transferred. Ummattur therefore is not a central place for chattram purposes and it seems unnecessary to incur a large expenditure on account of a chattram there. The memorialists may be informed in the sense of the above.

Sir,

Referring to your Official memorandum No. 598 of the 26th September 1902 regarding the Subjects No. 240 and 241 of the Dasara Representative Assn Proceedings, viz, the removal of the Assn Chattram at Chamarajnagar to Ilom matham, I have the honor to report that the proposed removal is not at all popul as will be seen from the enclosed Tehsildar's No. 12 dated 22nd October 1902 from the Amildar of Chamarajanagar.

Chamarajanagar is certainly a more important place than Hunnathur which is an Inam village, and the proposed Sivakuta at the Chamarajanagar temple cannot, for reasons given by the Amildar, answer the purpose of the present Chattrum which is freely resorted to both by Smarthas and Madhwas.
